18 Identification of beneficial owners and clarification of their PEP status*

The account/custody account holder holds at least one beneficial owner.

The account/custody account holder has no de facto beneficial ownership, because the holding limits (capital share/voting rights) do not exceed the amount of 25 percent and another actual control is not recognizable. In this respect, according to the German Money Laundering Act, the so-called fictitious beneficial owner is to be listed. This pertains to the legal representative, the managing shareholder or partner of the contract partner.

Does the (fictitious) beneficial owner or a close family member of the beneficial owner (direct relative or spouse) hold a prominent public function? No Yes

Information about the beneficial owners and about clarification of the PEP status

As a credit institution, SECB Swiss Euro Clearing Bank GmbH is obligated in the sense of the German Money Laundering Act to trace profits from serious criminal activities. This means that SECB Swiss Euro Clearing Bank GmbH is legally required to implement the duties of care contained in the German Money Laundering Act and to ensure adherence to them. In this regard, it is to be determined and recorded whether the beneficial owner, the contract partner or its beneficial owners are a politically exposed person (PEP).

Beneficial owner

The beneficial owner, in terms of the German Money Laundering Act is:

1. the natural person who ultimately owns or controls the contract partner, or
2. the natural person, upon whose initiative a transaction is ultimately executed or a business relationship is ultimately founded.

For corporations, the beneficial owners include those natural person who directly or indirectly

1. hold more than 25 percent of the capital shares,
2. control more than 25 percent of the voting rights, or
3. exercise control in a comparable manner.

In the case of foundations and legal constructions with legal capacity which administer or distribute assets in a fiduciary capacity or entrust third parties with such administration or distribution, or comparable legal entities the beneficial owners are:

1. every natural person who acts as trustor, administrator of trusts (trustee) or protector, if existing,
2. every natural person who is a member of the supervisory board of the foundation,
3. every natural person who has been determined to be a beneficiary,
4. the group of natural persons, in favor of which the assets shall be administered or distributed, if the natural person who shall be beneficiary of the administered assets, has not yet been determined, and
5. every natural person, who otherwise directly or indirectly exercises a controlling influence on the assets administration or profit distribution.

In case of acting on initiative, counting among the beneficial owners are those on whose initiative the transaction will be executed. If the contract partner acts as a trustee, he is also acting upon the initiative of the beneficial owner.

Fictitious beneficial owners

If, after conducting comprehensive reviews, no natural person can be determined or if there is doubt that the person identified is the beneficial owner, then the legal representative, the managing shareholder or partner of the contract partner is considered to be the beneficial owner.

Politically exposed person

According to § 1, para. 12 of the German Money Laundering Act, a politically exposed person is someone who holds or has held a prominent public function on an international, European or national level, or a public office below the national level which is of comparable political significance.

Politically exposed persons particularly include

1. heads of State, heads of government, ministers and deputy or assistant ministers;
2. members of parliament or of similar legislative bodies;
3. members of the governing bodies of political parties;
4. members of supreme courts, of constitutional courts or of other high-level judicial bodies, the decisions of which are not subject to further appeal, except in exceptional circumstances;
5. members of courts of auditors;
6. members of the boards of central banks;
7. ambassadors, chargés d'affaires and high-ranking officers in the armed forces;
8. members of the administrative, management or supervisory bodies of State-owned enterprises;
9. directors, deputy directors and members of the board or equivalent function of an international organisation.

A person who has not exercised a prominent public function for at least one year in the sense of the aforementioned functions shall no longer be regarded as politically exposed.

A family member is an immediately family member, in particular

- spouses or registered partners,
- children and their spouses or registered partners,
- the parents.

Known closely associated persons in terms of this Act are natural persons for which there is reason to believe that they

1. together with a politically exposed person
 - a) is beneficial owner of an association according to § 20, para. 1 of the German Money Laundering Act, or
 - b) is beneficial owner of a legal construction according to § 21 of the German Money Laundering Act,
2. maintains close business relations with a politically exposed person, or
3. is sole beneficial owner of
 - a) an association according to § 20, para. 1 of the German Money Laundering Act, or
 - b) a legal construction according to § 21 of the German Money Laundering Act, for which there is reason to believe that the establishment is taking place de facto to the benefit of a politically exposed person.
